School News

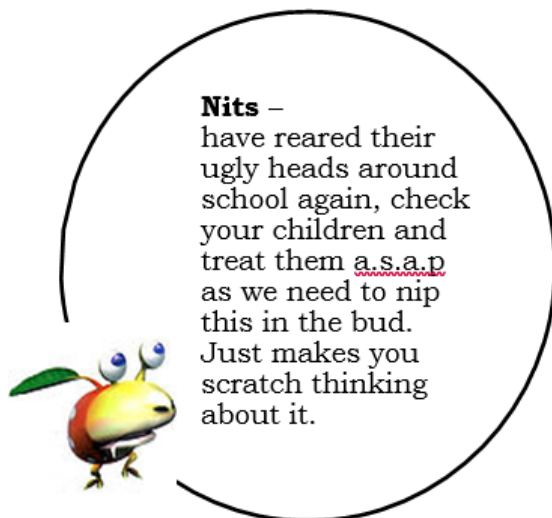

Thank you to all the parents that attended the afternoon tea last week. I enjoyed meeting you all and are looking forward to the year ahead.

The swimming lessons are going well. The children are making great progress with their swimming development. It is very important that the children learn how to swim especially in this area where we are surrounded by water.

There are changes being made this year to the organisation of the Central Otago Primary School Sports events.

These events include the swimming, triathlon, orienteering, cross country and athletics. A new three tier interschool sports competition is being introduced to cater for the increasing number of school age children in the Central Otago area. For Glenorchy School children, this means that they would first compete in our school competition and be eligible for selection for a Wakatipu zone event. (The schools in the Wakatipu zone are Arrowtown, Shotover, Remarkables, Kingsview, Queenstown, and St. Joseph's). Those children who do well at the zone event would be eligible to compete at the Central Otago sports.

Central Otago schools are presently working on a proposal to appoint a regional sports coordinator to oversee the running of the Central Otago competitions.

have reared their ugly heads around school again, check your children and treat them a.s.a.p as we need to nip this in the bud. Just makes you scratch thinking about it.

Wanted: If you have any native plants to donate to school e.g. Tussocks, Flax, Lordyline, Pittosporum, Hebe, Grasses e.t.c.

Can you please drop them off to school within the next two weeks so the children can plant them in the Native Garden that Jenny and Rex have kindly maintained for us. Thank you.

Musical Mondays

Starting Monday 26th Feb 1:30pm at The Academy at Kip McGrath

We are delighted to welcome Ali Board, originally from the UK, who's here to run 'Musical Mondays' at The Academy. She is a percussionist of diverse styles and plays in orchestras, bands and ensembles across the south west of England. From timpani to drum kit along with gospel and Cathedral choir singing, she has multi-faceted abilities and musical talents. She plays drum kit, timpani and orchestral/band percussion, and her wealth of musical styles and experience include jazz, salsa, samba, stage musicals, classical, brass band, folk, concert band and Ghanaian drumming.

Ali first qualified as a lawyer, then recognised her passion for education by studying to teach English whilst continuing her musical career. She has taught in the UK, Asia and New Zealand, in a variety of settings and with students aged from primary through to adults and pensioners. Highlights include having played at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, as part of Dartington International Festival Orchestra, sung at the Rugby World Cup, in Westminster Abbey and for the Queen!

Having started tutoring at Kip McGrath recently, she's looking forward to bringing an extra musical dimension to your children's educational experience.
